Round 2
03.08.14
Let the upsets begin...

The local teams continue to make the job of including reportage of interest to a Norwegian audience a straightforward task. Less than three hours into the session, it became clear that Norway’s second team would be increasing its time in the spotlight, while the main squad for the home nation again gripped viewers by not quite meeting expectations.

Norwegian champion Frode Urkedal, 21, evened up Norway 2’s tussle with second ranked Ukraine by defeating the renowned Vassily Ivanchuk, a feat which immediately catapulted the youngster into the media hot seat and the NRK TV studio.

Not long afterwards, World Champion Magnus Carlsen agreed to split the point against Finnish GM Tomi Nybäck, a result that symbolizes the slow start to the high hopes for Norway’s A-team. Nybäck’s draw carried some extra sting as Carlsen was undoubtedly eager for revenge, having lost to the Finn in the 2008 Olympiad in Dresden. Norway 2 completed their upset by holding Ukraine 2-2, a result that would have pleased the first stringers. Norway 1 had to settle for 2-2 against Finland, a repeat of their 2008 meeting.

Ivanchuk just collapsed. He probably overlooked something and his king was quite weak. He probably thought I had to go for his knight. It obviously feels good to beat a strong player such as Ivanchuk

Big guns
Many of the top matches were again characterized by healthy rating gaps between top and bottom half, but the atmosphere was noticeably more tense and the duels more closely fought. The start of serious business was also evident from the appearance of nearly all of the big guns who rested up on day one. The heavyweight teams rolled out their muscle on top, with a few notable exceptions - England’s Michael Adams has not been spotted yet, and the USA’s Hikaru Nakamura has made his frustration with travel problems well known via Twitter, and had not yet arrived after getting stuck in London.

Tardiness and tears
Zero tolerance claimed several casualties today - the Burundi men’s team, and most of the Palestinian teams - one of their men played a few moves before giving up, perhaps in sympathy with his forfeited teammates.

One tragic enforcement of the zero tolerance rule ended in tears when Layola Murara Umuhoza, the 10-year-old first board for the Rwandan women’s team, lost without play. One has to question the point of a rule that prevents games being played in an event that has so much importance, especially for smaller nations, because of what is often just minor tardiness.

Notable moments - The top Baltic battle between Alexei Shirov and Sarunas Sulskis was a modern interpretation of a rarely seen romantic classic, a Fried Liver attack. Latvian attacking legend Shirov didn’t need to be asked twice, and successfully set off the sacrificial fireworks. Another household name, Alexander Beliavsky, was forfeited on board one for Slovenia versus Iran for late arrival, a casualty of FIDE’s Draconian ‘zero tolerance’ rule.

Upsets abound
Veteran Scottish GM Colin McNab held his own with the world elite, splitting the point with Azerbaijan’s number one Shakhriyar Mamedyarov.
World number two Levon Aronian was held by Australian GM David Smerdon, and Russia’s Ian Nepomniachtchi drew with untitled Hamad Al-Tamimi from Qatar. Hungary had a tough time with Venezuela, and only edged out a 2½-1½ victory, with young star Richard Rapport losing to IM Juan Rohl Montes. On top of this, Judit Polgar’s fine combinational finish came after her opponent missed a winning opportunity, so Venezuela was near the sensation of the day.

Most top teams shed board points, but France, Netherlands, Germany, Cuba and Italy of the top 20 ranked teams kept their perfect records.

In the Women’s event, the picture was similar - the big favorites continued to gather steam - though there was an interesting contrast in their deployment of heavy artillery. Top ranked China continue to reserve World Champion Yifan Hou for use at a later date, while rivals Russia have put their controversial new acquisition, former Ukrainian GM Kateryna Lagno, into action from round one.

Even with the champ still on the sidelines the powerful Chinese team rolled to another 4-0 win, this time over Venezuela, and Russia kept pace by blanking Brazil. Armenia was the only other top ten team that managed to extend a perfect score.

Ukraine and Georgia each dropped a point today - Ukrainian GMs Anna Muzychuk and Anna Ushenina were held to draws by significantly outrated IM Irina Berezina and WFM Thu Nguyen of Australia. Georgia had their bid for continued perfection derailed after WFM Marija Stojanovic beat IM Salome Melia in a violent battle.
The Egyptian team came close to nicking a match point against 12th seeded Germany, managing a 1½-2½ result despite being massively outgunned on every board. Norway’s women impressed with a 4-0 win over Ecuador, in a match that looked to be close on paper.

The round three pairings reveal the beginning of some heavyweight duels, with 7th ranked USA facing China and Russia meeting 9th seed France.

6.\text{xf}7 It’s hard to convince a computer that White’s long-term initiative gives him sufficient compensation for the sacrificed piece, but in practical play white does extremely well. However, this might be the first time two grandmasters decide to discuss this razor-sharp line.
